Larry, the attached picture is supposedly (written on back Bethany Union) a picture of Bethany Union Church years ago. I was able to borrow the picture and make a copy. It came from the family pictures of a Zel Engle who was Clayton Ingle's father. I have no idea of the year but may be one of the first taken. I'm sure it is before the one in the Eaton book I did.

To give you a background on how I happen to get the photo for copying:

Johannah Kitterman married John T. Shoemaker (my g, grandfather on my Dad's side)
He died, Johannah married Ezekial Duzhan both buried Potter's cemetery. (Somehow Ekeial Duzhan had an alias name but can't remember what it is at the moment-no one knows why)

Notes for William Poe

This genealogical file covering the Southern Indiana branch of Poe and related families is based upon data that has been acquired by numerous individuals over an extensive period. These data sources will only be partially documented within this file at this time. Hopefully they will be more completely documented in the future. I will mention that this Personal Ancestral File, PAF, has been merged with data from a Family Tree Maker File, FTW, prepared by Patricia Ann (Lamppin) Lanning, based upon her and Evelyn Gayle (Harper) Jackson's research.

The following letter has been very helpful in identifying the early members of this branch of the family. Copies were obtained from both Olive Eleanor Poe and Adam Poe's daughter, Lela "Opal" (Poe) Whitaker.

I was greatly pleased to hear from you. We are well at this time and have been having good health for the past two years. We both had Pneumonia two years ago Xmas and almost lost your Aunt. She was in bed for five months. It almost ruined us but we are still able to eat three meals a day.

Now about the Poes. I am sorry that none of us know much about them. We can only trace them back to Germany and I can't remember the one's name that came over, (—) Poe. He had four sons, George, William, John and one more, I don't know his name. (don't know his wife's name) William had Jeremiah and Jesse. (These all lived in Virginia.) Jeremiah went to North Carolina and married Hannah Doane. Jeremiah is my Grand Father. He raised ten sons and two daughters, William, Jacob, Elisha, John, Jeremiah, Basil, Susan, Jonathan, Jesse, Hannah, Pinckney and Ira. William, his oldest son born March 10, 1807 in what is now Clinton Co. Ohio, married Eliza Ann Crezelous about 1831 or 32. They had Eli 1834, Wm. Henry 1836, Jeremiah 1838, Elisha and Elijah 1840 and Jacob 1844. Eliza Ann died July 4, 1844. William married again Susan E. Harrison in 1845. They had Eliza Ann, Melinda, Mary E., Lucinda K., George I. And one died an infant, (a son). I have not got the date of the women. I think sister Lucy has and I will write her and find out. She has the old family Record.

You can see (if you can read this bad writing) that - Jeremiah Poe and his son William had large families. We don't know, as you can see, the name of our Great-Great-Grand Father Poe who came from Germany nor his wife. We don't know the name of our Great-Grand Father William's wife. They lived in Virginia. Grand Father Jeremiah married in North Carolina and moved to Ohio about 1806 and came to Indiana in 1814. He was a soldier in the War of 1812 and 15. We have always had a tradition that our Great Great Grand Father William (Note: probably meant Great-Grand Father - DRT) and his brothers was soldiers in the Revolutionary War but no one has a record of it.

I don't remember the date of your Great-Grand Mother's birth nor my Mother's birth either but your Grand Father was born Feb. 8, 1836.

Now Aunt Anna sends her love. Carrie married three years ago in April and we had a letter from her a few days ago. She lives North of us in Kemper Co. Give our love to all Marengo and write us another good big letter.

Your old uncle,

A. Poe

Dear Don,

I recently acquired the first minute book of the "Old Unity Church" which used to be situated on a tract of land near where the Cemetery is now situated, but is now extinct and torn down. This minute book is in the possession of the Clerk of the Hardinsburg Baptist Church , which merged with the Old Unity Church . The minister of the Church is a friend of the family, and was kind enough to bring the book up and let me keep it for a week and copy some of the material from it. I found some names in it, which I know you will be interested in also. This church was organized in June of 1818. The first minutes contained the following: "June the first Saturday, 1818. After being Regular Constituted and declared to be a Church, proceeded to business. 1st. Opened a door for the Reception of members— and received Jeremiah Poe by experance."

Later, on the 2nd page of minutes- was the following:

"First Saturday in July, 1818. Church met and after divine Worship proseded to business.

1st. Received by Letter, Polley Totten, Mary Turley and Elizabeth Riley," and on the 3rd page of minutes - "First Saturday in April, 1819- Church met and after divine worship proseded to business.

1st, Received by Expearance Hannah: Poe and Richard Tadlock.

Received Sister Anna Whitman by Letter. "

So, you see- your Jeremiah Poe and Hannah Poe, and Polley Totten, the first settlers in that community, and were among the very first to organize the church. The Anna Whitman above, is my ancestor, who was the Anna Storms Whitman, wife of John. Jeremiah Poe's name was mentioned numerous times in the minutes on committees, etc, so he was evidently one of the main ones conducting church affairs. and the minutes of Saturday, the first in June, 1819- "Received by Letter, Sister Mary Whitman." according to Mr. Calico, John Whitman's mothers name was Mary- so this evidently is the mother of John who joined the church in 1819. according to the records, she asked for a letter of dismissal in November, 1820, was granted one- but the first Saturday in July, 1826, a Brother Jonathan Low, Elizabeth, his wife, and Sister Mary Whitman, were again received into the Church by letter from Hillsborough Church, and on the first Saturday in March, 1827, the two Low's and Sister Mary Whitman were all granted letters of dismission from the Church, and they are mentioned no more. I wonder if these Low's were relation to the Whitman's - since she joined the church at the same time they did, and was granted a dismissal at the same time, I just wondered perhaps, if they were connected someway. I have failed yet to find anyone around here, who knows where the Hillsborough Church was - but evidently it was somewhere in Crawford, Harrison or Orange Counties, as that church was mentioned two or three times in the minutes, as being a part of the Association to which the Unity Church also belonged, John Whitman did not join the church until the first Saturday in June, 1847 and James Whitman and Elisa Whitman, his wife (who was a son of John and Anna) joined the church on Sunday in June, 1856.

The membership roll in the back of the minute book contained the name of each member from the organization in June 1818 to October 1858, when the minute book ended- and the second minute book is unavailable as yet to the minister of the church, as an individual member has the book and will not turn it over, but I understand that there is going to be a lawsuit over regaining possession, if she does not relinquish it soon. Apparently it contains some undesirable information about some of this person's family, and she does not wish other people to learn of this. Your Jeremiah Poe and Polly Totton are the first two members listed in the membership roll, after the names of the ones who constituted the church. There were about two hundred names listed in the membership roll, and I will list all of the Poe's, Tottons and Whitmans which were there:

Name	Date Received	How Received	How Dismissed
Jeremiah Poe	June 1818	Experience	By Death
Polly Totton	July 1818	Letter	By Death
Hannah Poe	April 1819	Experience	Sept.1859-Death
Anna Whitman	April 1810	Letter
Mary Whitman	June 1819	Letter	Nov.1820-Letter
Mary Whitman	July 1826	Letter	Mar.1827 "
John Whitman	June 1847	Letter	Sept.1854 "
Lydia Whitman	Aug. 1852	Experience
James Whitman	June 1856	Experience
.Elisa Whitman	June 1856	Experience

I'm sure this information will not open any channels toward finding any missing ancestors, however, I did think it was interesting to find out that some of our early ancestors were members of the Old Unity Regular Baptist Faith, and that they took an early part in the organization of our country- I thought perhaps you too, will enjoy adding these bits to your records. Yours truly,

Clara Marie Burns

P.S. After checking the list of sur-names of your ancestors, I rechecked the lists for Doans - Crecelius - Neal, etc and found none, except one "Sally Neal - October 1856 by letter" cmb

The Steven museum in Salem IN has a copy of the 1858 will/estate settlement of Hannah's father, Jacob Doan. Daughters Hannah Poe and Lydia Cooper appear to be deceased when Jacob died since he left bequests to the children of both these daughters. Copies of Washington County Court documents pertaining to Jacob Doan's estate settlement were provided to us by Clara Marie Burns of Salem, IN. Copies of these documents are included with the notes for Jacob Doan.

Children of Jeremiah "Jerry" Poe Sr. and Hannah Doane were as follows:

Philip; I have done some researching in answer to your phone call in regard to the children born to the second marriage of Stephen Barnett. I have found Stephen had four children born to his marriage to Charlotte Lincoln. Stephen and Charlotte were married in Crawford County in 1919; Book "K", pg. 503. According to the newspaper obit in regard to the death of Woodrow Barnett. (one of the sons) the children of Stephen were Woodrow, Thomas, Hazel Barnett Davis and; Margie Barnett Hawkins.

Woodrow was born 29 MAR 1920 and died 15 NOV 2001. He married Thelma Duke 30 SEP 1939 in Crawford Co. Their marriage is located in Book "0" page #225. He and his wife had seven children—Kenny, Ronnie; Gary; Paul; Charlotte; Jean; and Cindy.

Thomas Barnett is still living and is in a nursing home at Corydon in Harrison County. He married first to Margaret Duke (sister of Woodrow's wife) and after her death he remarried and she has since died. He and Margaret were the parents of four children; Martha, Debbie, Lisa and a son who I do not know his name.

I know nothing of the two daughters of Stephen but will research more for you if you wish.

I must tell you about Stephen's second wife. I did not know who she was until you mentioned her maiden name being Lincoln; Then I remembered in my Denton family history that Deborah Denton who married George Washington Lincoln had a daughter named Charlotte; born 08 FEB 1892. And she had married Stephen Barnett 17 May 1919. And, yes, this was your Stephen. Deborah Denton Lincoln (Charlotte's mother) was a first cousin of my grandmother. (Another family genealogy discovered.) George Washington Lincoln was the son of Josiah Lincoln (Abraham's uncle) who settled here in present day Harrison County in Blue River Township, near where I live.

Any of these marriage records are available at the Crawford County Archives for $1@. I volunteer there on Tuesday and will make copies and mail them to you if you wish. Hope this answers some of your questions.

The library only has a marriages index, not the record books. The historical society researchers are checking on it for you at the archives.

I checked the library's index of obituaries today and I'm sorry to tell you I didn't find any for them. We'll check some more to see if we can find any other information. Becky Hammond Stetter, Crawford County Public Library, Genealogy Dept.
