“We Keep The Books”

The Crawford County Archives has now closed for the year.

The volunteers of the Crawford County Historical Society who worked four hours each week, from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. at the old court house deserve our thanks and gratitude! At least they have mine!

When Roberta Toby and Ruth Terry “pulled their duty” on Mondays, Roberta has been looking through all the old newspapers and looking for items of interest to her and others. Ruth, I believe, has been working on her family genealogy.

On Tuesdays, Hugh and Evelyn Jackson come in for their shift. Evelyn usually does research on one of the several organizations she belongs to, when she is able. Lately she has had trouble with her eyes and it may require further treatment. Hugh spends his time reading.

On Fridays, Don Standford mans the place. He usually spends his down time reading.

I also thank Edith Key and Roberta Toby and Ruth Terry for filling in for me on at least one occasion.

While we all “do our own thing” during our four-hour stretch, we always await the visitor who needs some guidance in finding their ancestors and we are eager to assist them — sometimes the job gets boring with no visitors!

Visitors this year totaled about the same as last year. I counted 75 visitors last year and we had about 76 visitors this year. We were open for about 92 days this year, so that is less than one visitor per day.

Thanks again for all your help!!

from your Archives Coordinator.
