William M. Kellems Died in Andersonville Prison

WILLIAM M. KELLEMS was born December 18, 1832, being the second son in a family of seven: Jacob (deceased), Julianna (now Mrs. Isaac Kendall), William M., James, Martin (who died in Andersonville prison), Steward and Dennis, born to James and Catharine (MITCHELL) Kellems, both natives of Tennessee. They were married in Crawford County where the mother is still living, the father having died in 1742. The family were reared in Crawford County. The parents were members of the United Brethren Church. The father was one of the first "squires" of Crawford County being commissioned by Gov. Jennings when Corydon was the State capitol.

William M. was reared and educated at home where he remained until his marriage to Miss Nancy, daughter of George and Polly (FORTUNE) KITTERMAN, residents of Clark Township, Perry County, which was solemnized January 27, 1753, and to this union eleven children have been born, seven now living: Mary C. (who married Joseph Engle), George W. (deceased), Julianna (who married Francis M. Enlow, Nancy A. (now Mrs. John Davidson), James, David U., Tabitha J., William T. (deceased), Dennis (deceased), Sarah E. and infant (deceased). Mrs. Nancy Kellems was born January 23, 1833. Mr. Kellems is a farmer and a prominent man. He followed carpentering for over fifteen years. He owns 100 acres of fair land mostly

An Illustrated History of Nobles County, Minnesota

By Arthur P. Rose

ALBERT BROOKS, who with his brother, Lyman, farms 240 acres on section 8, Westside township, is a native of that township, having been born July 19, 1880. He is the son of the late Samuel Brooks and Susan E. (Turner) Brooks, early day settlers of the county.

Samuel Brooks was born in Crawford County, Pa., August 30, 1840. Thirteen years later he moved to Crawford County, Indiana, where he resided until 1872. During nearly all of this time he was engaged in the milling business. In November, 1801, he enlisted in company H. of the 49th Indiana infantry, and served a little over three years. He was in the Vicksburg campaign with Grant and was present when the city surrendered. He took part in the battle of Cumberland Gap and saw considerable fighting in Texas. After his discharge from the army he returned to Crawford county, Indiana. He came to Nobles county in 1872 and located in Westside township, filing on the southwest quarter of section 20 as a homestead and the northwest quarter of the same section as a tree claim. He lived on the homestead until he secured title and then sold it. Thereafter he lived on the tree claim. During the early days Mr. Brooks did not reside continuously in the county. He occasionally made trips back to his old home, where he would live from a few months to a year at a time. Selling his farm in 1890, he returned to Indiana, but came back again in the spring of 1891, and resided on the farm until his death, which occurred April 27, 1904. Mr. Brooks served as supervisor of Y-Westside for several years. Our subject's mother was born in Crawford county, Indiana, was married to Mr. Brooks in Fillmore county, Minn., June 14, 1877, and now resides with her son.

Albert Brooks was raised on the Westside township farm, secured his education in the district school, and has resided there all his life. Lyman Brooks, who is in partnership with our subject, was born Oct. 30, 1888. Albert Brooks has held the office of town clerk for the last four years and that of director of school district No. 50 for the last three years.

 York, Nebraska

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Jeremiah Wright of Virginia.

The data furnished herein were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim, S.32617, based upon the military service of Jeremiah Wright, during the War of the Revolution.

He was born March 29, 1762 in Hampshire County, Virginia; names of his parents not given.

While residing on the Monongahela, Yohogana (?) County in what was then the state of Virginia, Jeremiah Wright served with the Virginia troops, as follows-

From August 1778, four months as private in Capt. Isaac Pearce's Co. in Gen. McIntosh's Campaign and assisted in building Ft. McIntosh at the mouth of Big Beaver; from Nov. 1780, one month as Lt. in Capt. McAllister's Co., Col.
 Gibson's Reg.; from April 1781, seven months as Lt. in Capt. Wm. Bruce's Co. under Cols. Morgan and Harden, went down to the Falls of the Ohio; from March 1782, three months as Indian Spy under Lt. James Marshall; from Sept. 1782, one month as Lt. in Capt. McAllister's Co., Col.
 Gabriel Cox's Reg.

The soldier after the Revolution lived in Washington Co. Pennsylvania, then moved to Indiana in 1824 and lived in Harrison and Crawford counties.

Pension was allowed on his application executed October 1, 1832, then living in Crawford County, Indiana.

The soldier, Jeremiah Wright, died May 18, 1833, leaving the following children — Sarah McLain or Milan, Elizabeth Bell, Ann Hammond, Julia Jones, Ezekiel S. Wright, Lavina Fetzer, and Amanda Newman. The name of the soldier's wife is not given.

Very truly yours,

A. D. Hiller

October Term 1832

Declaration of Jeremiah Wright Revolutionary War Veteran

ON THIS first day of October 1832 personally appeared in open court the Honorable Samuel Hall, President Judge and Elisha Tadlock and Henry Green, his Associates, it being a Court of the Circuit Court of Crawford County and State of Indiana and a Court of Record now sitting.

Jeremiah Wright, a resident of Crawford County and State of Indiana, aged 70 years last March, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1839; That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated; He entered the service in the year 1778, month of August, was drafted for the term of four months in what was called McIntosh's Campaign and served the above term under Captain Isaac Pearce and attached to the command of General McIntosh and at the building of the garrison called Fort McIntosh at the mouth of big Beaver in the State of Pennsylvania and was discharged in the month of November 1780. Secondly, that he entered the service as a volunteer in November of 1780 as lieutenant under the command of Captain McCallister under the command of Colonel Gibson of the 13th Virginia Regiment, afterward called the 9th Regiment and was . . . and served one month and was discharged by said Colonel Gibson, was camped at Pittsburgh, was from there marched toward the Seneca Nation but in consequence of bad weather returned and was discharged. Thirdly, that in the month of April 1781 he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer and was immediately commissioned lieutenant by General George Rogers Clark, commanding the State troops of Virginia who signed his commission, was in the company commanded by William . . . commanded by Colonels Morgan and Haden in which term he served upwards of seven months and was discharged in the month of October 24, by John Crittenden, aid to Clark; in the campaign he first camped at the Newt store on the Monongahela thirty miles above Pittsburgh and in the month of July went down the river Ohio as far as the falls and there remained until discharged. Fourthly, that he volunteered in the service as an Indian spy in the month of March 1782 and served upwards of three months under the direction of James Marshal, company lieutenant of the County of Washington, State of Pennsylvania and spied up and down on each side of the Ohio River during the aforesaid period, when he was discharged. Fifthly, that he entered service as a volunteer and as lieutenant in the month of September 1782 under the command of Captain McCallister who was under Colonel Gabriel Cox and served upwards of one month, was camped at Pittsburgh and remained there until discharged, making in all upwards of nine months as lieutenant, upwards of three months as Indian spy and four months as private; That he was in no battles, that he never received any written discharge, that his commissions were left with his father's papers which are all destroyed, that he was born on the 29th day of March 1762 as appears from the record laid down in his father's Bible which is in the possession of one of his brothers; was born in the County of Hampshire and the State of Virginia when called into service was living on the Mongahalia, Yahogany County, then in the State of Virginia; That since the revolution he lived on the Ohio River in the County then called Washington and now Allegania in the State of Pennsylvania; In 1824 he emigrated to the State of Indiana and has ever since resided in the counties of Harrison and Crawford; That he has no documentary evidence of his service neither does he know of any person now living by whom he can prove his services except the testimony of Isaac Williams, a resident of Harrison County, Indiana who has some knowledge of his six months service as lieutenant and whose affidavit is herein enclosed; He has given the names of James Blackwell and Nathaniel Hollcroft, two neighbors to whom he is personally known and who can testify to his character as to truth and veracity and of their belief of his services in the revolution; He hereby relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

/s/ Jeremiah Wright

WE, James Blackwell, clergyman, and Nathaniel Hollcroft residing in the same place hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Jeremiah Wright who has subscribed and sworn to the above Declaration, that we believe him to be 70 years of age, that he is respected and believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the revolution and we concur in that opinion.

/s/ James Blackwell, clergyman

/s/ N. Hollcroft

AND THE COURT does hereby declare their opinion after the investigation of the matters and after . . . that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier and open court the aforesaid being a Court of Record, Thomas Reed, a resident of the County of Crawford State of Indiana for the two last years, aged 79 in this present month, who being first duly sworn according to law does on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated; That he engaged in said service some time about the last of July or early August and but a few days before the Battle of Long Island in the capacity of a volunteer milita man in the company of Lancaster in the State of Pennsylvania under the command of Captain John Patton in a regiment commanded by Colonel Thomas Porter, the name of the Major being Thomas Smith and was marched into the State of New Jersey and at Perth Amboy we were met by General . . . who took command of the detachment to which he was attached and in which he continued to serve for a little upwards of two months when he was discharged out of said service at Perth Amboy in the State of New Jersey; That some time about the middle of December following, he again went into the Union as a volunteer militia man in which he continued for about two months and during this time was engaged sometimes in the States of New Jersey and Pennsylvania and was at Philadelphia at the time the Hessians were taken by General Washington at Trenton and was discharged out of the service at Morristown in New Jersey and there the said term of service was under the same officers as before stated; And that some time in the ensuing November he again entered the service of the country as a drafted militia man in a company commanded by Captain John Pascon in a battalion commanded by Major Brown in which he continued about two months during which time he was engaged in the State of Pennsylvania between the river Delaware and the Scheykill above the city of Philadelphia and that the name of the commanding officer was General Potter and was discharged from said service at White Marsh hills and returned home. That about the middle of the ensuing June he again went into the said service in the same capacity as above in a company commanded by Captain Reion and was stationed at the town of Lancaster, Pennsylvania to guard British prisoners and in which service he continued for about two months (making in all upwards of eight months) when he was discharged, which was the last of his service during the war of the revolution; That besides the company to which he belonged during the last period of his services, there were two others stationed at the same place and employed in the same service of which were under the command of an officer named Captain John Hubler; That at the several times of his going out of service as above, he never received any written discharge, it being the practice of the officers who performed that duty to do so by the word of mouth and to give to the whole corps a discharge at the same time; That he was born in Dramon Township, Lancaster County and State of Pennsylvania where he lived while he entered the service as above; That he continued to reside in the same county after the close of the Revolutionary War for about nine or ten years when he was married and then he removed to Rockbridge County, Virginia where he stayed about three years; From there he removed to Roan County, Tennessee where he lived about thirty-two years and from there he removed to this county where he now resides as above stated; That his age was entered by his father in the family Bible, but it has been lost. That he is well known to William M. Taylor, Samuel Pendock, James Blackwell and James Spencer who are residents of the same neighborhood and who can testify as to his veracity and their belief of his service as a soldier of the Revolution; That he has no documentary evidence and knows of no person that testimony he can procure who can testify to his service; He hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension except for the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.
